Hi Karen,

Just a quick note to say that all went well over lunch & with the tour today.

Chief Weighill gave an excellent presentation giving us an update on the building & policing in Saskatoon. Most enlightening & educational.

Inspector Haye(I was in his group) did a superb job not only showing us through the building, but providing the commentary necessary to help us appreciate what takes place in the various departments.

Thank you for setting this up for us Karen.

Gary

Hi Everyone,

Communications received a call appx 1225 hrs today from Mr. Neil [REDACTED] He wished to express his gratitude to 2 officers that went "above and beyond" the call of duty.

It appears that Cst Josh Kennedy and Cst Cy Bray were attempting an arrest in the area of the [REDACTED] Upon returning to their patrol vehicles they observed an elderly female crawling out her front door. They ran to her aid and immediately requested an ambulance for the injured female.

Mr. Taylor was extremely grateful that they officers saw and assisted his wife, Shirley, who had fallen and injured her hip quite seriously.

While writing this email I overheard a transmission from MD Ambulance that her hip was most likely fractured.

Thank you.

Good afternoon,

I am writing this email to point out the high quality of service I had from your officers today. I made a call about a stolen backpack and a potential squatter (there was indeed a squatter) at [REDACTED]

I would like to thank all officers involved, from the Constable on the dispatch line to the Constables that came to deal with the situation. The response time was quick, and all officers conducted themselves in a very professional manner and quickly resolved the issue. As a result I now have the items that were stolen from my vehicle returned intact. What I particularly appreciated is that the officers did not tell me that I'm an idiot to leave my backpack in a vehicle parked in the back alley. That was extremely stupid of me, and I deserved to be told that I'm an idiot, but was not.

Anyhow thank you very much for retrieving my stolen property and responding to my call so quickly, it was much appreciated. I also mentioned to the officers on the scene that I'm glad I got my back pack back because it has sentimental value to me (it was my day pack for a month at a fly in camp on the coast of James Bay where I was conducting shorebird surveys and banding). I've attached two photos of myself in the middle of nowhere on the coast of James Bay, sporting the culprit backpack. If you think it appropriate feel free to forward this message and images to the officers involved, hopefully they'll enjoy the photos and knowing that they rescued my beloved day pack. Keep up the good work SPS :)

Have a good day, all the best.

I just wanted to pass along an email that was sent to the Service regarding a call that you all attended on Nov. 17, 2016 at the Royal University Hospital. The staff at the hospital, as well as their senior management were impressed with the manner in which you dealt with the incident involving the safety of a federal inmate/patient. Corrections officers believed there was a potential risk to the safety of the inmate from what was believed to be gang members seeking retaliation.

"The Senior Leadership Team of SHR wanted to express their appreciation for the quick response yesterday on an issue that had potential to escalate related to gang members in one of our facilities. I'm told it was very well handled by SPS in all aspects from quick response and throughout. Please pass along as appropriate within your organization."

Thank you for representing the Service in the manner in which you did. Your attentiveness and professionalism made an impact on everyone at the scene.

Dear Sir:

Detective Cst. Michelle Kinzel (#495), Sgt. Grant McMillian (#463) and others
SPS Occurrence 14-111854, 15-114879, 15-114880, 15-114895, 15-114883, 15-114876,

114890, 15-114889, 15-114891, 15-114893, 15-119468, 15-114894

On November 8 and 9, 2016, I spoke to the sentencing of Harley Irwin who had entered guilty pleas to 19 counts of voyeurism and I am writing to advise of the excellent investigation led by Detective Cst. Michelle Kinzel (#495).

In November of 2014, Harley Irwin was seen taping a woman while she was undressed at a tanning salon in Saskatoon. The responding officers took statements from all involved and the investigation was turned over to Det/Cst. Kinzel. Det/Cst. Kinzel obtained a search warrant and with a number of other officers from the SPS searched the residence of Mr. Irwin and seized cell phones from Mr. Irwin, amongst other items. A black iphone contained videos of which were concerning as they appeared to be of women who were undressed and unaware that they were being videoed.

Sgt. Grant McMillian (#463) completed the analysis of the phone and was able to determine the GPS location of where a number of these videos were taken along with the date and time. A production order was obtained in order to access the client information of the tanning salons to try and identify who the female in the video was. Officers then began the arduous task of cross referencing the client records with the SGI database to locate these females. Out of the videos, they were successfully able to identify 18 of them which led to the 18 additional charges of voyeurism against Mr. Irwin. As a result of the high calibre investigation and the overwhelming evidence gathered by the officers of the Saskatoon Police Service, Mr. Irwin entered a guilty plea at the docket stage to 19 counts of voyeurism and 3 weapons related offences.

A number of other officers have been involved in this investigation and I would be remiss if I did not mention them as well. Cst. Mohninger (751) attended the original call at Fabutan in November of 2014. Cst. Donison (605), Cst. Ternes (613), Cst. Harris (622), Cst. Ward (795), Cst. Munday (865) and Cst. McLane (716) all assisted Det/Cst. Kinzel in the execution of the search warrant. Cst. Akin (616) assisted in reviewing the videos. My apologies if I have neglected to mention any other officers involved in this investigation.

In preparing for the sentencing hearing, I spoke with Det/Cst. Kinzel a number of times and each time I was impressed with her professionalism and dedication especially as it related to this file. She responded quickly to any questions I had and was able to review the file with me to ensure I had a thorough understanding of the intricacies of this file prior to speaking to sentence. I advised her that I was going to require her at Court with exhibits for the sentencing and she quickly arranged the exhibits for me and prepared to testify on two separate occasions. I cannot speak highly enough of the investigation that took place on this file led by Det/Cst. Kinzel.

As a direct result of the quality and thoroughness of this investigation, there was an early guilty plea and Mr. Irwin and his surreptitious activities came to light before any more women could be victimized by Mr. Irwin.

Yours truly,

Christy Pannell

Published by Kelsie Fraser [?] · September 13 ·

Our Community Liaison Officers give all kinds of presentations to the community in an effort to make everyone feel more safe and secure. Today Cst. Dawn Epp spoke to residents of the Sherbrooke Community Centre about elder fraud and security.

If you would be interested in arranging a presentation of value to your community, you can now reach out to the CLOs through Facebook.

Sara Mann Cst. Epp is an amazing woman, she helped me a great deal at father Robinson school a couple years back and now we have another great woman Cst. Halter who is working hard in our schools....so nice to see this SPS! You have no idea how much it means to have these people step up and take the publics concerns seriously! It seemed like a long time coming! But I for one am super thankful for the work both of these ladies did to help our community thus far!

Amanda Mowat I almost put an officer in tears. It was a cold morning and there was 3 officers on 22nd by the Shaw center. It was really chilly so I went to Tim's and picked up 3 coffees. I pulled over and waited for one of them. He was so shocked that I was giving them coffee. I told him I thought they might be cold. Made my day to make him tear up. But not as fun as having a female officer chase me down 22nd to wave and thank me for her moca. I could never do the job they do so I like to thank them whenever I have a chance. You do amazing work. 😊

Mitch Aichele I keep seeing these posts of cops getting punched etc trying to arrest these guys. Gotta hand it to SPS for restraint, if they tried that in the US they'd be beaten to an inch of their life and/or shot lol

Cam Lipinski Here's to hoping the officers don't get charged for excessive force on doing the job they were hired to do because everybody is the judge out there and believe there are more reasonable ways in dealing with idiots like this!! Society has no idea what these officers are faced with and should just simply be more appreciative of their service!

Glenn Thomson Well done by all involved. The public needs to know the seriousness of the drug trade in Saskatoon and the province. More important, the number of firearms involved and in particular the loaded ones shows the dangers involved not only to the public but police officers as well. The public needs to realize that life has changed in Saskatoon and there are dangers all around us. To all police officers, please be alert and caution when doing your best to make our and your cities safe. Be safe and thank you.

Today's Good News Story

Two Patrol officers were driving north on Idylwyld near 39th Street early this morning when they saw a vehicle driving a little too fast for the speed limit. They stopped it and found that the driver wasn't supposed to be driving. As the driver was placed under arrest, officers found ammunition on him. This led them to have everyone exit the vehicle as they searched it. During their search, they found a sawed-off shot gun... concealed in a sock... and more ammunition. The firearm was loaded.

The passengers included three women. One was found to be wanted on warrants; the second was discovered to have methamphetamine on her; and the third was released with no charges.

The male driver is charged with:

- Drive While Disqualified
- Transport Firearm in a Careless Manner
- Possession of Prohibited Firearm for Dangerous Purpose
- Unauthorized Carry Concealed Prohibited Firearm
- Unauthorized Possession of Firearm
- Unauthorized Possession of Firearm in Motor Vehicle
- Possession of Prohibited Firearm with Ammunition
- Breach of Probation

This is a good reminder that traffic stops often lead to more than just a ticket.

Yesterday at 11:15am ·

I see a lot of people on here bashing police officers and always making sure that the "bad stuff" is shared far and wide. These two police officers were helping this woman change her tire and get everything back in her trunk. Making sure she was safe. I have seen them hugging scared children, driving people home, reassuring the elderly, dealing with the horrors no one else wants to and never being able to forget. Stop being angry because you got a ticket because YOU were speeding, or talking on the phone or any other felony you committed. Stop blaming and hating someone else for your choices and consequences.

I need to extend my gratitude for Constables Chris Sedgewick and J. Broadbent who helped a friend of mine in very difficult situation. Both of these gentlemen listen with patience and understanding, and ultimately helped guide my friend and her children to a safe place. They were both kind, compassionate, professional and caring.

Thank you for that.

I wish I could ask you to post this publicly as I want to tell the everyone about the wonderful Police Service we have in Saskatoon, but this is sensitive. My friend is in a shelter tonight, and vulnerable. I don't want her husband or other friends to see this. Her safety and that of her children is first on my mind.

Please pass on my thank you these two kind men.

Hey there!

I'd like to personally send a thank you out to you guys for the awesome work last night.

A friend of mine had a house party in Willow Grove that got too out of hand and a few officers were responding for some complaints. The three that showed up on scene were extremely understanding and helped us calm the situation quickly and safely.

Much appreciated from all of us and keep up the great work!

It seems we often fail to give thanks when deserved. Recently I was in a car accident and was very nervous phoning to report as well as waiting for the police to arrive. I felt quickly reassured as the communications officer was very understanding extending apologies as for the wait. The female officer who came to the scene was very professional but very human. To all officers who don't get recognition they so deserve thank you.

I just want to say, I am a "native lady" who resides in "the hood" as it's referred. I need to say there is so much hate for the police and so much anger but I as an individual am grateful to all the wonderful people who risk their lives every day. I've always been treated kindly and when there was an issue (or maybe two) the response was quick and well handled. Thank you again to everyone risking their lives for us citizens 🙏

I would like to give a great big Thank you to the police officers that came to my assistance to nite. I did not get the badges but they were very help

Thank you for everything you guys do to help keep our city respectful and safe! i couldn't imagine all the hassle you ladies and gentlemen go thru on the daily. stay safe out there
