Both men were very involved in the community with numerous volunteering activities and both were residents in Montgomery place. Both men are community grounded and have history within the City but also the province.

Don Neufeld spoke to the 'Neufeld' submission. Harold Neufeld was born in rural Saskatchewan. He was an advocate for his family and started his own General Store in small town of Hepburn. He moved into Saskatoon and had a huge heart for humanitarian causes. He worked with the Riversdale Community on a regular basis and tried to make the community a better place. Harold passed away in 2012 and in the time he lived here he had a trucking business and founded J&H builders Warehouse.

Terry Fusco, City Planner, City of Saskatoon presented the report of the North Sector Plan and responded to questions of the committee.

The re-naming of 'Victor Road' in the Stonebridge area was discussed and being that there is another 'Victor Road' in the RM of Corman Park that is in close proximity, the Committee agreed that it be investigated by Administration to find out the middle name of Victor Sommerfeld, whom the road was named by at which time, the re-naming request be brought back to Naming Advisory Committee to be considered.

The speakers were excused prior to further discussion and consideration of the applications.
