MARCH 18 IS TRANSIT WORKER APPRECIATION DAY

Transit Worker Appreciation Day is an annual day dedicated to acknowledge and express gratitude for the hard work and dedication of all transit workers who keep Canada's public transit systems operational. It is celebrated annually on March 18 and is recognized with a full week of appreciation.

Saskatoon Transit connects thousands of residents daily, in all weather conditions, thanks to the commitment of our team. From operators on the road to maintenance crews, planners, administration, and customer service staff, every member plays a vital role in keeping our city moving.

A simple "thank you" can make a big impact!

While Transit Worker Appreciation Day highlights their dedication, gratitude is welcome year-round. Show appreciation by thanking transit workers, sharing kind messages, or posting positive experiences on social media with #ThanksTransit and tagging @stoontransit.
