

About LITTLE PINE FIRST NATION

“Little Pine First Nation (LPFN) is home to the Plains Cree in Saskatchewan and is located at the foot of Bluehill and rests along the shores of the Battle River. Bluehill is a symbol of home for our people” (www.littlepine.ca). LPFN is focused on enhancing the quality of life for their members through the protection of Treaty. Through supporting and focusing on education, and particularly post-secondary education for their members, they will contribute to the betterment of the First Nation community, the province, and the global economy. Historically, Chief Little Pine was dedicated to improving the lives of his people, enhancing government relations, and creating a unified Cree territory in South-West Saskatchewan.

HIGHLIGHTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

- Chief Minahikosis (Little Pine) signed a formal amendment to Treaty 6 on July 2, 1879, near Fort Walsh.
- The leadership of LPFN has been creative in assisting members to secure and retain employment and training opportunities. Through small investments in gear and transportation, community members see substantial returns, including increased community pride, self-sufficiency, and financial gain.
- Members of LPFN recently participated in a community safety officer induction program to establish a program for local peacemakers in the community.
- The recently opened Gold Horse Casino located on LPFN land (in Lloydminster) is managed by the Border Tribal Council, formed by First Nations in the area. The casino will provide employment and economic opportunities for LPFN members and others in the area.
